

ASTROSHAMANIC HEALING

The Way Of Gemini

With Dave Mountjoy

Communication. Information. The Mind. Gemini and Mercury.

This day of Astroshamanic Healing offers the opportunity to explore the realm of the mind from an expanded perspective. Using dance, chant, experiential astrology and other spontaneous developments, we will work to increase our awareness of our own thought processes. The primary aim of such work is to place ourselves in a position of responsibility regarding our thoughts and perception of the world. In such a location, I begin to draw support from sources of unity and forgiveness and in so doing, contribute to the undoing of separation.
